

Catholic Advocacy Network

Tennessee Catholic
Public Policy Commission

There is strength in numbers.

February 20, 2020

Nick Sutton scheduled to die today.

Governor says No. No clemency for Nick Sutton.

Victims' family members plead for Sutton's life. Read.

Former prison officer says Sutton saved his lives. Read.

Bishops speak up against Mr. Sutton's execution. Read.

Pope calls the death penalty unacceptable—in ALL cases. Read.

Nevertheless, Nick Sutton will die today.

What can we do about it? It's too late.

There WILL be more.

Pray. AND write the Governor, your Representative, and your Senator.

Quote our Pontiff; he won't mind. The death penalty is no longer justifiable by society's need to defend itself...it has lost all legitimacy due to the possibility of judicial error. Capital punishment is an offense "against the inviolability of life and the dignity of the human person. It does not render justice to the victims, but rather fosters vengeance.

My Legislator

Jennifer Murphy, Executive Director | Tennessee Catholic Public Policy Commission | JMurphy@tncppc.org